

Safety grants

August 23, 2024 | BWC

Important: As of July 1, 2025, our Safety Grants programs are accepting new applications.

Please note:

- All applicants must submit a new application; previous submissions will not carry over.
- Updated guidelines require three vendor quotes or one quote with a sole source justification for the proposed intervention.

We offer a wide range of safety grants designed to help employers like yourself increase workplace safety and decrease risks. Our grants support initiatives across various industries, from manufacturing to health care, developing a culture of safety and well-being for employees. Check out our list of safety grants to find the perfect one for your organization's needs.
